Board Members

Mr. Taylor (Beavercreek) – Excited for the start of the second semester, and the different sporting and club events.
Mr. McQueen (Yellow Springs) – Started yonder pouches for cellphones with mixed reactions from the district. Hoping to see a decrease in discipline from cellphones. The students have been allowed to personalize their pouches.
Mr. Steininger (Fairborn) – Enjoyed his time on the Career Center board, and looks forward to Fairborn’s new board member taking his position.
Mrs. Gillaugh (Cedar Cliff) – The new superintendent is fitting in nicely; Organizational meeting took place on Monday, January 8th; Winter sports are going well, most notably for the Varsity Boys Basketball who are 10-2.
Mrs. Arthur (Greeneview) – Multiple athletic awards for fall sports, with 3 OHC players of the year; The Holiday Basketball Tournament went well; There will be a levy on the ballot, and the district plans to host events to reach out to the community.
Mr. Leightenheimer (Xenia) – Mary Grech was elected school board president; During the last board meeting the City of Xenia gave a presentation on the upcoming Market District Project and the types of businesses the project could bring.
Mr. Remaly (Bellbrook) – The Lions Club is building a new playground that will be wheelchair accessible; A new podcast, Eagle Eggs, has been started; After eight years of service on the board David Carpenter retired in December.

Administrators

Georgia Lewis (Treasurer) – Received the district audit back for last fiscal year with no findings.
Adult Education Updates – There are currently 21 cadets in September class. Columbus PD, Springboro PD, Troy PD, City of Powell PD, and Genoa Twp/ PD were here to recruit in November. Beavercreek PD recruited in December. The Corrections Academy graduated November 3rd. The First Line Supervision Class was held November 27-30, 10 attendees. Hosted training for Animal Welfare officers in November and December.
Dave Deskins (Superintendent) – Let the board know about April 8th, Eclipse Day, and GCCC will probably need to close; The Industrial Park across the street from campus is one of the top two sites for Project Element, bringing a potential of 250 jobs to the area. The Career Center hosted two meetings with the company, with another taking place on January 31st. An article in the Dayton Business Journal featured the Career Center. There is an upcoming donation of robotic welding equipment worth about $100,000 being made to the district. The engineering lab is currently partnering with the University of Dayton to make modifications to battery operated toy cars useable for children with disabilities.
