Coach Jamie Pearson is a Marion Native and a 1994 graduate of Marion Harding High School. Jamie looks forward to his first season leading his alma mater. Pearson has coach basketball for over 20 years, including 6 years of being a varsity basketball head coach. Pearson's combined record as a head coach includes 93 wins and only 39 losses. While at Dublin Jerome HS, Pearson was named OHSBKCA District 10 Coach of the Year, AP Central District Coach of the Year, as well as AP Ohio State Coach of the Year. He guided the Celtics to a division I, district championship and runner up in the 2014-2016 seasons. During the past 20 years, he has coached basketball at every level of middle and high school. Before Jerome, Pearson won a league title & Mid State League Coach of the Year award as head coach at Granville High School. Pearson has been a camp director at many NBA player camps, including ones for D'Angelo Russell, Mike Muscala, Chris Quinn, Julius Randle, and Tristan Thompson. Pearson is looking forward to continuing to bring excellence to Marion Harding basketball and excited for the opportunity to work with the community's kids.
