

FAT NO MORE

- Alberto Hidalgo-Robert reflects on his lifelong struggle with obesity, discusses how he overcame his food addiction, and offers tips and recipes for readers facing the same battle.—UG/5.9/8PTS.

CRAZY FOR THE STORM

- This powerful and unforgettable memoir shares the author's upbringing as a young athlete and his determination to survive after a devastating plane crash takes the life of his father.—UG/5.2/11PTS.

LEBRON JAMES-RISE OF A STAR

- This book chronicles the life of high school basketball star LeBron James, discussing how he became one of the sport's hottest prospects, how he dealt with fame in the NBA, and how he overcame a difficult childhood.—
UG/7.4/8PTS.

COWBOY AND THE ELEPHANT

- This book tells the story of Bob Norris, the Colorado cowboy who became the "Marlboro Man" in television and billboard advertisements, and Amy, the baby elephant he saved and raised on his ranch after her family was slaughtered in southern Africa.—UG/6.3/9PTS.

I AM THE CENTRAL PARK JOGGER

- Trisha Meili, anonymous for thirteen years, reflects on the brutal assault and rape she suffered in 1989 while jogging in New York's Central Park, and tells of how she was able to recover after being left for dead.—
UG/8.0/12PTS

A MILLION LITTLE PIECES

- The author shares his recollections of recovery from drug and alcohol addiction, beginning with his enrollment in a rehab center after a two-week blackout, and ending with his rejection of all 12-step programs—
UG/4.2/24PTS.

YOU'RE NEVER WEIRD ON THE INTERNET (ALMOST)

- Online entertainment pioneer Felicia Day's memoir includes stories from her unconventional upbringing through her experiences as an actress and interactions with fans and Internet trolls.—UG/6.2/11PTS.

FEARLESS

- This biography of Adam Brown, a member of Navy SEAL Team Six, discusses his childhood in Arkansas, joining the military, and death in Afghanistan in 2010.—
UG/7.7/16PTS.

SHY BOY

- This book chronicles the story of how horse trainer Monty Roberts gentled a wild mustang and permitted the mustang to choose between him and a return to the wild.— UG/7.1/5PTS.

NO LIMITS

- Michael Phelps describes his experiences at the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games, and also discusses his family, coaches, his passion for swimming, as well as the obstacles and challenges he has faced throughout his career—UG/6.3/12PTS.

CHARACTER DRIVEN

- Professional basketball player Derek Fisher reflects on his life, focusing on how his values have led to his success and providing insight into his family, personal relationships, and career—UG/7.4/18PTS.

ALL BUT MY LIFE

- This is a story of a young woman's three frightful years as a slave laborer of the Nazis and her miraculous liberation. – UG/5.9/14PTS.

TOMMY-THE GUN THAT CHANGED AMERICA

- This book examines the origins of America's debate over gun control sparked by a practical gun intended for military use. The gun became a weapon of choice for outlaws before Congress attempted to remove it from the streets.— MG/8.3/6PTS.

HOPE AND OTHER LUXURIES

- Published to coincide with ELENA VANISHING, this highly personal account of the author's efforts to support her daughter's battle with anorexia shares insights into the disease—UG/5.2/30PTS.

NAME ALL THE ANIMALS.

- Alison Smith chronicles her family's struggle to overcome the death of her older brother, Roy, and discusses how every aspect of her life was impacted by the loss.—UG/5.2/15PTS.

IF I GET TO FIVE

- Fred Epstein, a pediatric neurosurgeon, recounts some of the unforgettable letters, conversations, and experiences he has shared with his patients and their families—
UG/7.7/8PTS.

NEVER DIE EASY

- Written in the last weeks of his life, the celebrated running back for the Chicago Bears discusses his childhood in Mississippi, his college years, his pro football career, his business, and his devotion to his family—UG/6.4/16PTS.