

Come join us on September 23rd at the Pennsylvania College of Technology

AWS Local section 105 along with AWS student chapter will be hosting the American Welding Societies traveling Road show tractor trailer in the parking lot near the rear of the welding shop (address 1145 west third street, Williamsport PA).

The event will take place from 9:00am until 3:00pm, there will be raffle prizes given away, a silent auction, a few welding games, as well as the scholarship of $1,000 from the AWS for the highest score using their virtual welding machines inside the trailer.

There will be local vendors and industry partners on hand to talk about what they do in their fields.
