If you are planning to enroll in school or occupational skills training, OhioMeansJobs Lorain County may be able to help with your tuition.

You may qualify for Workforce Innovation & Opportunity Act (WIOA) financial assistance if:

- You are 18 yrs. old or older
- You are legally able to work in the United States
- Your household income is at or below 200% of LLSIL
- Your training is in a "In-Demand Occupation"
- You have the ability to attend and complete training
- Males must be properly registered with the Selective Service
- Other criteria may apply based on your individual circumstances.

Note: If you qualify for PELL, all PELL funds will be applied to tuition before WIOA funds
