

COLLINS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Honoring the legacy of Jerry and Sue Collins

Jerry and Sue Collins were big Logan Elm supporters since 1965 when their first child entered first grade. They continued to support Logan Elm until their last child graduated in 1990. They had a total of four children attend Logan Elm, Jeff, Tim, Terry and Jennifer. Jerry and Sue attended hundreds of educational and sporting activities for their children over the years. Logan Elm was a big part of the Collins family.

Sue was a cook for Logan Elm schools for 25 years after her kids were school age. Most of those years she worked at McDowell. She was known to give a little extra to the students she just knew needed it. Jerry volunteered countless hours to the athletic department. He ran the chain crew for over 50 years and loved every minute. He was also a referee so if someone didn't show up for a game the athletic director knew he would suit up and be there so the teams would be able to play their game. Even after Jerry didn't have any children to watch, he was at almost every basketball game. He loved watching the Braves play. This $500 scholarship was established by the children of Jerry and Sue. Two of their children went to College and two of them learned a trade. They were immensely proud of all of them. They wanted to raise hard workers with good and giving hearts.
