Superintendent's Report

Director of Teaching and Learning, Katie Spenthoff along with Greenwood Elementary Principal, Bill Colon provided an overview for the proposed after-school program pilot for the 2022-2023 school year.

Andee Linn from "Right at School" presented in-depth information as to how the program will work for the district as well as families to provide affordable before and after school care. This pilot program will only be available for Greenwood and Meadowvale at this time.

Director of Student Services, Neil Rochotte reviewed special education staffing requests and data for the 2022/2023 school year. Also discussed were staff assignment and program needs, federal and state parameters, caseload factors, parameters for the district, training for teachers, classroom aides, and administrators, curriculum and instruction and overall system changes.
