Parents and Students

Exciting times for Students

Every child learns in his or her own way. NOVA creates a classroom of one: a remarkably effective educational option individualized to meet each child's needs. Parents may now choose to educate their children using online programs. Some of these reasons parents and students choose virtual learning include a wider variety of courses, flexibility in scheduling, more challenging courses, or courses not available in the regular classroom environment that promote learning in a student's particular area of interest. NOVA places the choice in your hands.
