

Spirit Week

Logan Elm has declared the week of April 20th as Show Us Your Spirit Week! Details are coming soon regarding how to show us your spirit! In the meantime, we are posting the daily themes so you can start planning your spirit displays!

Monday, April 20th Teaching Day

Teach someone to do something, like how to bake cookies, build a birdhouse, tie their shoes, use sign language. Share some knowledge, and share your story.

Tuesday, April 21st Reading Day

Record yourself reading your favorite part from your favorite book. Make an audiobook excerpt and share it.

Wednesday, April 22nd Earth Day

Today is the 50th celebration of Earth Day. Create artwork from nature, show us the world in your backyard, or tell us how you are taking care of Planet Earth.

Thursday, April 23rd Exercise Day

Share an image or video of you doing something physical. Snap a picture of your yoga session, lifting weights, or riding your skateboard. Show us what you've got.

Friday, April 24th Spirit Day

Share your Logan Elm Swag. Flood the web with red and white!
