

Autism Atlas

along with

Four Corners Families with Autism Support Group

present

Self-Care: Ideas to support your loved one and yourself!

Virtual Podcast

August 9, 2021

6:00 PM

Panelists

Lynette Torivio

Family Specialist, Parent Advocate

Works on the Autism and Provider Resource team supporting families in all areas related to ASD. Has expert experience navigating systems and

Mariah Montoya

Coordinator of Recreational Service, Sibling Advocate

Works on the Autism+ team at the CDD to help create accessible communities for all individuals through her lived experience and knowledge of ASD.

Lisa Kalberg

MA, LPCC Education & Outreach Manager

As the manager of the Autism+ team at the CDD, Lisa works to create accessible communities for all individuals. She has experience working with transition aged youth, and she runs a life skills course for adults 18-30 called Thrive.

Tory Burns

MA, LCSW Senior Program Therapist

Works on the Parent Home Training program at the CDD with families of young children diagnosed with ASD. Tory has extensive knowledge in navigating systems, working with families, and evidence based practices for autism.

You and your family are welcome to virtually attend! Meeting will be facilitated via ZOOM by UNM Center for Development & Disability —Autism Programs. Contact the Four Corners Families With Autism Support Group for more information.

CENTER FOR DEVELOPMENT
& DISABILITY