Take time to celebrate your accomplishments, no matter how big or small!

Congratulations to all students and staff on a successful 2022/2023 school year! We look forward to welcoming everyone back to our new PK-12 building next fall! Enjoy your summer!

The 63rd Logan Elm High School graduation was held on Friday, June 26, 2023, at Braves' Stadium. The class was addressed and encouraged by principal Nate Smith and valedictorian Kinley Whited, among others.

Congratulations to the Logan Elm High School class of 2023! Always do the right thing, and always be a Brave!

Congratulations to the following Middle School students whose artwork was chosen to be published in the Spring 2023 Celebrating Art Anthology published by Celebrating art.com, pictured at right:

- Front row: Emily Curry, Molly Miller, Alexis Drum
- Middle row: Mark Wilson, Zallana Clark, Laynie Ash, Ashlynn Gaskin, Lilian Pressley
- Back row: Owen Williams, Adisyn Leist, Riley Fluhart, Baileigh Disbennett, Cooper Disbennett

Congratulations to Laurelville third grade students for completing 14 nights of after school reading and math club. Students took advantage of this time to prepare for upcoming assessments. Students and staff celebrated with a pizza party for a job well done!

Congratulations to the members of the Logan Elm High School Concert Band! The band performed at the OMEA State Band Adjudicated Event on Saturday, April 29th, at Gahanna Lincoln High School. For their outstanding and musical performance, the band received an overall EXCELLENT rating, receiving ratings of superior from three of the judges and a rating of excellent from one judge, just narrowly missing an overall SUPERIOR rating! This was the 29th appearance in the state event for the high school concert band in the last 35 years!!

The McDowell Middle School Concert Band performed in the OMEA District 15 Jr. High Band, Choir, and Orchestra Adjudicated Event on Wednesday May 17th at Mees Hall on the beautiful campus of Capital University. For their outstanding and musical performance, the band received a SUPERIOR rating from all three judges! This was only the second time in the last 20 years that the band performed in this event. It is the second year in a row that a band from McDowell received a SUPERIOR rating in the event!!

Congratulations to the High School and Middle School Band Concert Bands on a truly outstanding year!!!!
