QUARTER #1 ENDS, CONFERENCES COMING

The first quarter ended this past Friday, October 30th. Teachers will be using the next several days to complete report cards, which we intend to send home with your child on Monday, November 9th. Of course, many of our parents have conferences scheduled prior to our report card release date so you'll receive up to date information from our outstanding teachers at that time. For our fourth grade families, please note that this is the first year for actual letter grades in the various content areas. Fourth grade parents/caregivers can always check ProgressBook throughout a specific grading period to assess how their child is progressing. ProgressBook is a great tool that parents can use from grades 4-12 to monitor assignments, view current grades, and check on attendance.

PICTURE RE-TAKES

NF's picture partner, LifeTouch, a subsidiary of ShutterFly, has announced that picture re-takes will occur at our school on Thursday, November 19th in the morning. Parents who wish to have their child's portrait retaken must send in a note to the teacher, along with their complete picture packet on this day. This is the one and only day for individual school picture re-takes.
