Curriculum

Math

- Ongoing professional development
- Using the Ready Math program with fidelity
- Collaborative instructional planning
- Understanding the Standards for Math Practice

OTHER CURRICULUM AREAS

LIBRARY MEDIA TECH

Library, Technology Integration Specialists and Teachers are working together to integrate the coding and STEAM standards

ENGLISH

LANGUAGE ARTS

This year, we are studying the shifts of the standards and how they impact teaching and learning. This work will help us set a solid understanding of next year's work.

MTSS

Our Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) Committee is working on creating a handbook so that we have similar systems and structures in place to identify and support learners who are in need of additional support.

Curriculum Next Steps

Math

- IReady Diagnostic 2 during December
- Continue to monitor and support the fidelity of teaching the program

English Language Arts

- Continue to focus on the standards to prepare us for upcoming curriculum adoption

MTSS

- Complete district-wide Handbook that define support for Tier I, II and III students

Professional Development

Teacher Institute Day

VOICES FROM THE FIELD

I appreciated that as a related service professional, my breakout group was something applicable to me and that I was able to use immediately.

iReady training was overwhelming, but helpful.

I was excited to get more information on iReady implementation in our classroom.

Loved Dr. Angelaccio's presentation and connection to math implementation.

It was clear that the activity was presented by persons with education and experience in the subject matter (ISBE Required)
