Information about Mu Alpha Theta

These candidates are being presented for induction into Mu Alpha Theta, the National High School and Two-Year College Mathematics Honor Society. Each of them meets the requirements for membership, including work done with distinction in college preparatory mathematics. The purpose of Mu Alpha Theta is to promote a keener interest in mathematics, develop sound scholarship in the subject and promote enjoyment of mathematics among high school and two-year college students.

The Banner

You see before you a replica of the insignia of Mu Alpha Theta. Blue represents truth as unlimited as the sky. Gold shines as the symbol that mathematics is indeed a valuable treasure. The insignia represents, above all, a high point in the history of the world, and important relationship in mathematics - one that combines the mystery, the challenge, and the beauty of numbers with a simple geometric figure, the right triangle. Let this simple geometric proof of the Pythagorean Theorem be a symbol for you and serve as a challenge to encourage your further enjoyment and study of mathematics.

The Oath

Certificates and pins will be distributed to new members after the induction ceremony.

English Translation of the Initiation Ceremony

Andrew: Members, old and new, of this Hispanic society, greetings! We are gathered here for the initiation of this group of students who have shown and proven a deep interest in the beautiful Spanish language. Let us listen to our Vice President who will give us a short summary of the history and purposes of our society.

Casey: This Spanish Honor Society was founded by the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese in 1953, for the students of North American secondary schools; and this chapter is due to the efforts of Señora Laliberte of Pelham High School who established it in 2006. The name of this chapter is Gloria Estefan. Our motto is: "All together." Our colors are: red and gold. Our insignia and seal are those of the mother association.

Joelle: Now we are going to be quiet...This is our initiation, serious and significant. Let us all listen carefully...This is our mother candle. It serves us each year. It represents inspiration.

Joseph: As an example of this inspiration, here are the words of the poet Gaspar Nuñez de Arce who wrote the poem ¡EXCELSIOR!

"Why do humble spirits, why do lowly souls,
 In the fierce combats of life, neither struggle nor resist?
 The human spirit is more constant the more it rises!
 God put mud in the lowland, and he put the rock on the mountains.
 The white snow, which in the deep valleys melts away slowly,
 On the high peaks remains unchangeable and eternal"

Meagan: Each has a candle in his (her) hand. This typifies our course of life. Thus, without burning, it exists, but does not live. That candle is saying: "If they burn me, I live; if not, I die." May our lives never be candles unburned! Now each of you will come, in turn, to this mother candle, to receive from it the symbolic flame, the flame which symbolizes with its heat the inspiration toward high ideals. Each will come forward on hearing their name.

Madison: This year we have fifteen candidates that have completed all of the requirements to be members of the Spanish Honor Society.

Sydney: We have the honor of presenting these candidates whose names are:

Andrew: You will repeat the oath of the society, phrase by phrase: "As a member of the Gloria Estefan Chapter, I promise to devote myself to the study of the Spanish language in order to master it someday, remembering that a language can be a strong tie between persons of differing origins of race or religion. As a citizen of my country, I promise to promote friendship and understanding between it and the other lands of the world. This is my promise and my oath."

Andrew: Now each will blow out the flame of his (her) candle but never that of your spirit! Let us remember this. Let each member keep their candle as a remembrance of his (her) initiation into this society. Friends, by the authority granted me by the presidency of the Gloria Estefan Chapter, I declare you members of this chapter.
