Local school board member honored by state association

MARION — Leslie Schneider, president of the Marion City Schools Board of Education, has been recognized for her service to a statewide association of school boards.

Schneider received a plaque thanking her for her contributions as a member of the Ohio School Boards Association (OSBA) Board of Trustees, the association's governing body. OSBA Director of Communication Services Jeff Chambers presented the plaque at an Oct. 4 Marion City Board of Education meeting.

The veteran school board member also serves on the association's Legislative Platform Committee, Capital Conference Planning Task Force and Conference Work Committee. In addition, she is the OSBA Central Region president-elect.
