Dear Early Care and Education Stakeholder,

We need your input! The Ohio Department of Education's Office of Early Learning and School Readiness has released draft revised Early Learning and Development Standards. The draft standards represent collaborative efforts of more than 150 early care and education providers, technical assistance providers, content experts, state agency staff and other stakeholders.

The standards are open for public comment through February 18, 2022.

The public comment survey is an opportunity for early childhood professionals, families, community members and other stakeholders to review the drafts and provide feedback. Additional revisions will be made to the standards, if necessary, depending on the feedback we receive.

To learn more about the standards review and revision process, visit the Department's Early Learning and Development Standards Review and Revision webpage.
