2024 SUMMER INSTITUTE FOR AUTHENTIC LEARNING AND LEADERSHIP

Featured speakers include:

Buddy Berry, Superintendent of Eminence Independent Schools (KY), is back by popular demand with a variety of breakout sessions, such as “Creating the Coolest Lessons Ever!”

Missy McClain, Community Education Program Coordinator for School Health Services Department at Akron Children’s Hospital, will use a mix of personal experiences and lessons from the road to provide practical resources for any adult looking to make a difference in the life of a child.

Steve Shapiro, host of the acclaimed experiential-learning and school reform podcast Experience Matters, will share his passion and enthusiasm for making school more relevant, engaging, and empowering for students and teachers alike.

Annalies Corbin, Founder, President, and CEO of the PAST Foundation and host of the widely popular Learning Unboxed podcast series, will return this year to share her passion for linking learning to life.

Jen Lehe, Beth Crane and Richard McKee Associate Director of Learning Innovation at the Columbus Museum of Art, will help educators plan for community impact by linking art and community engagement.

Donte Woods-Spikes, a gifted artist, communicator, and community leader, will educate and connect us to the world beyond perceptions and stereotypes through the sharing of authentic experiences.

Sarah Lagrotteria, Head Educator at Just Bloom School, will empower us to see the importance of solving real-world problems through narrative rather than logic-based methods.

Attendees can choose from over 55 breakout sessions led by students, teachers, and administrators, focusing on vital educational topics. By participating on July 23 and 24, educators have the opportunity to earn 2 hours of Ashland University graduate credit or a certificate for 16 hours of professional learning.
