VOICES IN THE SNOW

- Clare wakes to find herself in the large Gothic home of a stranger, who tells her she was in a car accident and that he saved her. While she was out, a snowstorm like nothing anyone has ever seen has blanketed the world and trapped them together, leaving Clare nothing to do but wait. Then one day she notices strange sounds and sights from outside the windows, something creeping in the surrounding, snowy woods, watching and waiting--and she begins to suspect the stranger has not told her all there is to tell, and that her accident was no accident at all.
