This is an EBOOK. If you want this book, you do NOT have to fill out a form. You can download this to your chromebook by Clicking on the blue box that says "Visit/Download Resource Now". The first time only that you do this, it will take you to an acct. page. Simply choose the Gafe Acct that is there. It will then take you to the checkout page

This page will give you a summary of the book. On the right, you have choices. “open now” will allow you to open the book and read it. However, remember, if someone else checks it out, it will no longer be available. Use this if you want to read a small portion to see if you are going to like the book. To use this feature, you must have internet access.

Formerly shark girl

Bingham, Kelly L.

Available: 1 / 1 - eBook

A year after the shark attack that took her arm, Jane is realizing that everything she used to take for granted has gone from her. She probably can't be an artist--instead she wonders if it is her duty to give back in some way, such as being a nurse. Then there are boy issues, as her old crush Max comes back into her life at the same time as another cute boy from her science class expresses his feelings for her.
