The West Carroll Parish School Board is accepting applications for the position of Assistant Principal of Forest High School!

If you are seeking the opportunity to meet the challenges of an innovative PK-12 environment in a traditional, West Carroll Parish community, we want to hear from you. Forest High School serves approximately 500 students and has a strong history of academic excellence.

Louisiana Educational Leader certification as described in BESE Bulletin 746 is required. Preferred qualifications also include leadership experience in the areas of 1) curriculum implementation and school improvement planning and monitoring, 2) teacher observation/evaluation and individual professional growth planning, and 3) oversight and management of discipline administration. Candidates must have a record of excellent verbal and written communication skills and proven problem-solving abilities.

Application deadline is July 28, 2021. To be considered for this position, applicants MUST mail a letter of interest, resume, and current LA Ed Leader certificate to: Forest High School Assistant Principal Search, C/O The West Carroll Parish School Board, 314 East Main Street, Oak Grove, LA 71263. Applicants may also complete the online application available on the West Carroll Parish School Board website.
