

June 2023

Not a Box

Vocabulary Possibilities: rectangle, empty, imagine, pretend, act, dress-up, props, front, behind, inside, outside, atop, beside

Dedication pg	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Where do boxes come from? What are boxes used for? • Did you ever have a big, empty box? Tell about it.
Pg. 1-2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What do you see on this page? • Why do you think the rabbit might be sitting in the box?
Pg. 3-4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Now what do you see? Did you ever see a racecar or go-cart like this? • Tell about it. Why would a driver wear goggles?
Pg. 5-6	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • This looks like a sturdy box since the rabbit can stand on it. • What might it be made of? Why not cardboard? • If you were standing on top of a box like this, what could you pretend?
Pg. 7-8	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What's happening here? How can you tell it's a mountain? • How do you think a mountain climber feels after he gets to the top? Why?
Pg. 9-10	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Now what's happening? • Did you ever pretend to be a firefighter? Tell about it.
Pg. 11-12	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What is the box now? How can you tell? • Why do you think the hat has the letters 'F' and 'D' on it? • What else does a firefighter wear?
Pg. 13-14	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If the rabbit is wearing the box, why can we see his ears and legs? • Did you ever see someone wearing a box costume? Tell about it. • Will the rabbit be able to see where he's going? Why or why not?
Pg. 15-16	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Did you ever see a robot? Tell about it. • The robot is called RAB-BOT. Why do you think they called it that?
Pg. 17-18	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What might the rabbit be pretending now? What would you pretend if you had a box to play with?

Pg. 19-20	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The rabbit is imagining all kinds of ways to travel with the box. ● Can you think of a way to travel in the box that the rabbit hasn't thought of?
Pg. 21-22	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● What has changed with the box now? ● How might the rabbit have made the opening/window? ● What would you pretend the box is with this window?
Pg. 23-24	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● What is the rabbit doing now? What might he be thinking?
P. 25-26	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● What is happening here? The box and the rabbit are drawn with black lines. Compare the color of the lines on other pages. What do you notice? ● What is the illustrator showing us by making the lines different colors?