

You are invited...

PLANNING MEETING
FOR TIS/WRC PARENT INVOLVEMENT ACTIVITIES
FOR 2022-2023

TROY INTERMEDIATE SCHOOL LIBRARY
WEDNESDAY, May 18th at 4:30 PM

We value parent involvement at our school and all staff believe that effective and engaging parent involvement is critical for every child's success.

PURPOSE: You are invited to participate in a planning meeting to help develop parent programs and activities that will be implemented for the upcoming school year. Help us to go "beyond the bake sale" as we develop activities, workshops, and events to help all parents at our school to be full partners in the education of our children. The input from this meeting will be used to develop and update our School Parent Involvement Policy.

AGENDA:

- Review the McKinney-Vento Definition of Homeless
- Identify Barriers that Prevent Our Parents from Becoming More Involved
- Brainstorm for Ideas to Overcome Barriers
- Review Current School Parent Involvement Policy
- Update Policy to Include New Ideas
- How Title 1 works in our buildings
- Acadience and PSSA Assessment

HOMEWORK: Before the meeting, please complete and return the Parent Survey by Tuesday, May 3rd. We will use the survey to lead our discussion on improving our Title 1 Program.

The in-person meeting will be held in the TIS library. If you cannot attend but you would still like to join us, please use the zoom link below.
