From the Pastor's Desk

The suffering and blood of the first Christians became the seed of many thousand others. Jesus must become visible in his members. With Paul every true Christian must be able to say, "I bear the wounds of Jesus on my body". Trust and Dare Words for Each Day by Mary Theresa of Jesus Gerhardinger foundress of the School Sisters of Notre Dame

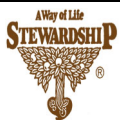

In today's Gospel it is proclaimed: " While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official's house arrived and said, 'your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?' Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, 'Do not be afraid; just have faith.'"

The virtue of faith and the necessity of faith is the dominating theme of today's readings. Faith is our personal response to a God who continues to reveal himself to us and invites us to recognize his holiness and beauty. Bible shows us the ways in which God reveals himself to human persons and invites him to respond in faith. Every situation in the world presents a very great contrast between human powerlessness in the face of sickness and death on the one hand, and the striking force of faith on the other. We are in a constant relationship with a God of wonder who transforms us, heals us and removes our pains and transforms them into joy. Faith works miracles and there are the thousands of small miracles that no-one notices them except those concerned. Certainly, people are aware of the work of the power of God in human situation. In this rational world we need the spiritual insight to recognize the working of these miracles. But faith is there like a small seed which when planted in the human heart grows slowly to yield fruit. Today's readings invite us to reflect on how profoundly faith influences our view of the world and our actions

Today's Gospel tells us about the divine power and infinite mercy of Jesus. Apart from proving his claim to be the promised Messiah, all his miracles had as their aim and their end to remove the pain and sufferings of human persons. He did not perform any miracle for the sake of astonishing people or to satisfy idle curiosity of people. Each one was performed to help someone in distress. All who were helped by his miracle of mercy had one thing in common, namely, they were motivated by faith in him and trusted fully in his mercy and power.

It is the faith that brings about the healing. Hopefully, we can be and are people of faith so we can experience healing.

God Bless—Fr. H

"...as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality."

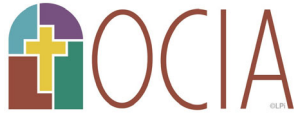

(2 Corinthians 8:14)

One of the tenants of living a grateful and generous lifestyle is giving without expecting anything in return. It is important that we not only grow, nurture, and share our gifts; but that we also teach our children and encourage others to do the same. This is the communal aspect of our Catholic faith. We are the "Body of Christ." We are called to be dependent on each other and not live in isolation.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

That we turn our daily focus to God and others to develop A "God-centered" lifestyle.

Amen

OCIA LESSON –HOW DID CHRIST ESTABLISH THE SACRAMENT OF CONFESSION?

Scripture states that only God can forgive sins. (Mt 2:7) However, Jesus Christ gave his power to forgive sins to his apostles and subsequently in an unbroken line to their successors. “He breathed on them, and said to them, ‘Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.’”(Jn 20:22-23)

The format of the sacrament consists of verbal confession, the penitent’s expression of sorrow for sins and firm purpose of amendment, the priest assigning a penance followed by the priest’s powerful words of absolution. “God, the Father of mercies, through the death and resurrection of His Son has reconciled the world to himself and poured out the Holy Spirit for the forgiveness of sins; through the ministry of the Church may God grant you pardon and peace, and I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.”

Eucharistic

Stewardship Prayer of St. Ignatius Loyola

Take, Lord, and receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding and my entire will – all that I have and call my own.

You have given it all to me.

To you, Lord, I return it.

Everything is yours; do with it what you will.

Give me only your love and your grace. That is enough for me.

Are you interested in creating more adult faith formation opportunities here at Little Flower? We are looking to form a committee to discuss ideas for formation outside of Mass. It could be anything from a bible study to a video presentation or even guest speakers. If you are interested in helping, please contact Jackie Waugh at 314-704-5619 or jwaugh123@charter.net.

Rectory Summer Hours

The rectory office hours for the summer Are Monday thru Thursday 6:45am to 2:45pm. The office will be closed on Fridays.

Eucharistic Revival News

The Eucharistic Congress is fast approaching. It will be held in Indianapolis July 17-21. Also, the Eucharistic Pilgrimage will be coming through St. Louis this July 5-7th. I have some people who are interested in going out and being part of the pilgrimage while they are here. We are going out to St. Charles on the 5th. If you would like to join us, contact Jackie Waugh at 314-704-5619 or email jwaugh123@charter.net. All are welcome!

Our parish is offering a convenient service for contributions! Online Giving is a web-based application that allows you to start, stop and change your contributions at any time. Please notice that our offering envelopes now have a check box which indicates "I've given online," which you can use to present during offertory at Mass. Online Giving is very easy to use and requires no special knowledge other than how to access the Internet. If you haven't already signed up, then go to our parish website at www.littleflowerstl.org and select Online Giving or you can register at our parish app. Simply scan with your Smart Device. It will take you to the on-line giving portal of our website.

Footsteps of Apostle Paul First Class Tour
 March 30, 2025 to April 8, 2025

Land and Cruise starting at $3480 per person
 (based on double occupancy)

"For we walk by faith, not by sight," wrote the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians. On this religious tour of Greece and Turkey, you'll stroll, skip, and sail by faith as you retrace the many missionary journeys of the Apostle Paul after he saw the light in Damascus. Both pilgrimage and picturesque journey, this land and cruise tour to mainland Greece, the Greek Isles, and Turkey leads you to many significant sites of the New Testament as well as some of the most magnificent sights of the Mediterranean. Scripture will take on new meaning as you visit the ancient communities where Paul established churches – and to whom he penned his epistles, including the Thessalonians, Philippians, Corinthians, and Ephesians. As you follow in the faithful footsteps of the Apostle Paul – with fantastic detours to Mykonos, Crete, and Santorini – you, too, will have much to write home about. In November, there is a potential amendment that would enshrine abortion in the Missouri Constitution

If passed, it will:

- Allow unlimited, unrestricted abortions for all 9 months of pregnancy
- NO parental consent or notification
- NO health and safety standards
- NO ability to sue for malpractice
- Taxpayer funded
